

A warm, close-up shot of a diverse group of people at a wedding. In the center, a man with a beard and mustache, wearing a grey suit and blue tie, looks upwards with a joyful expression. To his left, a woman with dark hair and a pink flower in it smiles broadly. To his right, another woman is laughing heartily. The background is filled with other guests, all appearing happy and engaged. The lighting is soft and intimate, typical of a wedding reception.
